

Code of Conduct

Collabung is a worldwide community that fosters creativity among its users. It is crucial to show respect for the community's values, while also understanding your right and responsibility to uphold them. If you come across a post that intends to harm a fellow community member, please report it in the app or email the Collabung support team.

Sharing your opinions on public figures is allowed and does not go against our policies. We want to encourage and support positive community values and we will remain committed to always following this code of conduct.

At Collabung, we strive to establish trust and integrity within our community. By giving others the benefit of the doubt, we cultivate a positive environment for all users to thrive. As a global community with diverse opinions and values, we prioritize mutual respect and understanding. We value the power of storytelling and recognize the importance of being patient and empathetic towards different perspectives. When we make mistakes, we take responsibility, apologize, and use the experience as an opportunity for growth.

We believe that trust is built through our words, actions, and behaviors. By upholding integrity, we create an atmosphere that inspires the best in all of us, even across differing viewpoints. If you encounter abusive or inappropriate behavior that you cannot resolve on your own or with the help of the block or delete features, please report it in the app or to our support team via email.

We strive to create a community where empathy, care, and respect are at the forefront of our interactions with each other. Our commitment to compassion enables us to explore new paths towards empathy, care, and respect, all through the power of storytelling.

We encourage constructive comments, as long as they are given in a respectful manner, and we celebrate diversity, encourage self-expression, and maintain a safe and creative environment. Although we may come across content we don't agree with, our platform welcomes a broad range of opinions and viewpoints.

As we work to ensure the safety of our community, we remain mindful of language and context. We work to ensure that we always maintain an environment that instills respect for others.

At Collabung, we foster community by celebrating and amplifying inspiring stories that reflect the diverse experiences of our users. We believe in the power of storytelling to bring people together, and we strive to provide opportunities for creators to grow and make meaningful connections through their work.

As an organization, we are committed to creating a more inclusive and equitable platform. We value and speak up for marginalized communities, and we take continuous action to ensure that our users have more inclusive experiences. This includes regularly assessing our processes, behaviors, and practices, and making necessary changes to uplift stories and moderate our community with an inclusive mindset.

We understand that building a more inclusive community is an ongoing process, and we are dedicated to continuously enabling change at all levels of Collabung

At Collabung, we prioritize the protection of our users and their stories by using our platform for this purpose. We actively work towards preventing any harmful use of vulnerability and ensure that our policies, teams, and processes align with human rights and contribute to their preservation. Our community is self-reflective, and we constantly strive to create a safe environment for everyone who engages with us.

We believe that the stories shared on our platform should not contribute to real-world harm, and we take action against hateful ideas and groups that can hurt others. It is crucial that we all respect the values of the community and take responsibility for upholding them. If you come across any content that aims to cause harm, please report it to us.

We hold ourselves accountable for meeting these commitments and ask for your commitment in supporting our efforts.